Charao Island

With Seclude Falling Cashews

Cycling - Cooking Class- Kayaking - Bird Watching - Boat Cruise - Church Visit- Candle Light Dinner - Island Walk

Morning whispers through Mango trees
As you awaken to a goan breeze,

A quaint church, alive with stories
A wholesome bakery, with warm pois,

As you cycle through the road less travelled,
Slowly mundane worries unravell,

A wonderous ride on winding lanes,
Past fields where quiet peace remains.

Sunsets glisten on the river cruise,
Birds and crocodiles and oh what views!

By the backwaters, soft and deep,
Egrets wade and kingfishers leap.

Roam the waters with a paddle and kayak,
Peace in each ripple, no rush, no track,

Learn to cook with goan flavors,
Oh so many delicacies to savour,

Pages turn in a book half-read,
Calm in the air, old worries shed,

Cashews fall as your lullaby,
The river hums, your soul replies,

Time is yours, no need to chase,
Come lose yourself in Chorao's grace,
